Method Striking Competition

Saturday, 20th May 2017

Well done and congratulations to Sawbridgeworth, Bishops Stortford and Great Parndon who respectively achieved 1st, 2nd and 3rd places in the Method Striking Competition held at Roydon on Saturday, 20th May 2017. Well done also to the other five bands who took part in this competition – Henham, Radwinter, Waltham Abbey 1 and 2 and Willingale – and better luck next time! I was extremely delighted that eight bands were entered in this competition, something which hasn't been seen for some while, so thank you to all the tower captains who encouraged [and cajoled!] their ringers to take part and to all the ringers for 'having a go'! Of course, a thank you also goes to Colin and Vicki Chapman for being such excellent judges and for their constructive comments on the bands' performances. Finally, thank you also to Roydon for hosting this competition and for providing the vital refreshments to keep everyone going.

Alternatively, I can issue reminders or information items via EACR Notices.

Charmborough Mini Ring

The Charmborough Mini Ring is now based locally and is available for hire for fetes, village days, etc. Apart from being fun, it is hoped that the mini ring will encourage new recruits to bell ringing. Booking details can be found at www.charmborough.org/hiring

Ian Kerwin took the mini ring to the Hatfield Broad Oak Fete on Bank Holiday Monday and 24 potential ringers, from Essex, Hertfordshire and Cambridge, 13 of whom were local, expressed their interest. Ian will be arranging for these people to commence learning to ring and if anyone is able to offer their help, please let Ian Kerwin know.
