

CENTRAL COUNCIL OF CHURCH BELL RINGERS REPRESENTATIVES

Job Description & Responsibilities

Responsibilities:

The Central Council of Church Bell Ringers (CCCBR) Representatives are elected to serve for a period of three years. The number of representatives depends on the number of members the Association has. See current CCCBR rules to determine the number of representatives we can elect.

CCCBR Representatives are members of the Association's Management Committee and are expected to attend the meetings of that committee and participate in the decision-making processes. All members of the management committee are charity trustees under the Charity Act.

The Role:

- To attend the annual CCCBR meeting on behalf of the Association;
- To provide a written report to the management committee of the CCCBR annual meeting;
- To obtain guidance from the Association on how to vote on behalf of the Association at the CCCBR annual meeting on matters of fundamental change (e.g. reform);
- To actively participate on the CCCBR working groups;
- To promote the work of the CCCBR to the Association and its membership, including providing updates on the work of the CCCBR working groups, services and products that the CCCBR offers;
- To provide a summary of activity of the Association's CCCBR Representatives work in the Association's Annual Report
