

YOUNG RINGERS CO-ORDINATOR/YOUTH DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

Job Description & Responsibilities

Responsibilities

To co-ordinate activities for young ringers across the whole Association and be responsible for entries to the National Youth Contest and other events. Have a good knowledge of change ringing with an interest in training, education and youth participation

The Role

- Review existence of and develop proposals for youth groups and youth activities within Essex
- Establish a contact network of existing young ringers including establishing where young people are ringing so that those who are not yet EACR members can be contacted and included in any initiatives and events.
- Establish, edit and update a dedicated webpage on the EACR website and social media groups e.g. a dedicated Facebook group
- Encourage and support local District initiatives for young ringers' events
- Encourage and support County-wide young ringers' events e.g. Annual "Youth Day", an inter-District competition
- Encourage groups to consider entering a team for the Ringing World National Youth Competition
- Be responsible for publicity and commissioning of articles for the newsletter/website
- Ensure that those running young people's groups have the required DBS clearance
- Report to the Management Committee twice yearly
- Confirm the extent of support which the Association and its members are prepared to give to the above initiatives in terms of manpower and funding